

NWP Management System (incl. procedures, instructions, forms & guidance):

The National Waste Programme maintains a management system as mapped out in this diagram. It aligns with LLWR's ISO 9001 management system. The NWP management system includes procedures that document the activities of the National Programme Office to ensure that progress towards achieving the programmes required outcomes is tracked and maintained.

