

Introduction

This notice is to provide confirmation to customers of the Service Pricing revisions that come into effect for consignments delivered on or after the 1st April 2017.

LLW Disposal Price Increase

For waste consignments delivered after 1st April 2017, the Volume Charge for LLW Disposal Services will increase in line with RPI for the period December 2015 to December 2016, equivalent to 2.6%. This increases the Disposal Charge from £3,077/m³ to £3,161/m³.

The Volume Charge increase results in equivalent increases under the Disposal Charges for Supercompacted Waste. The Overweight Charge for containers and the Radioactivity Charges remain unchanged.

LLW Packaging Price Increases

The Estimating Norms for LLWR's Packaging Services have been updated in line with the new packaging framework, these will be effective from 1st April 2017. The new packaging framework has been effective since June 2016 Estimating Norms have remained unchanged since April 2015.

The full list of prices and estimating norms for LLWR's services are published in the Service Price List (WSC-SPR-LIS) which can be found at <http://llwrsite.com/waste-services/service-pricing/>
