

Introduction

This notice is to inform Customers that the Discrete Item Decision Summaries web resource is now live and available at the following link:

<http://llwrsite.com/national-waste-programme/waste-practitioner-support-guidance/introduction-to-discrete-items/>

Alternatively the pathway: LLWR Homepage / National Waste Programme / Waste Practitioner Support & Guidance / Introduction to Discrete Items can be clicked through to reach the same resource.

Discrete Item Decision Summaries

Discrete Items may be accepted by the Repository where they meet the Discrete Item Limit (a radioactivity limit as described in the LLW Disposal WAC) and all other relevant Repository acceptance criteria.

The web based resource is a library of LLW Repository Ltd decisions on whether or not particular items of waste are Discrete Items. The decision summaries are intended to help waste producers decide whether waste items they propose to consign to the Repository should be recorded as Discrete Items on the LLW Repository Ltd Waste Consignment Information Form.

New decision summaries will continue to be added to the library as they become available.

All waste items must be considered for reuse and diversion (for example metal treatment, incineration, disposal to permitted landfill or supercompaction) before a waste producer seeks to consign items to the Repository; ensuring appropriate application of the Waste Hierarchy and minimising disposals to the Repository.
